In regard to the particular fabrication which the News parades in staring capitals under its editorial head, as a conclusive argument against General Sourt, we invite the reader's attention to the following emphatic contradiction. It is from one of the mest distinguished officers of the General Staff, Capt. SCHEYLER HAMILTON, who fought gallantly under his illustrious Chief, and was wounded abuset unto death in one of the actions of the campaign. Col. Hamilton speaks of what he Lucus, and cites the authority of the Adjutant General's Department at Washington in support of his statement. Washington, D. C., Oct. 8, 1852,

To the editor of the Republic. DEAR Sin :- Having seen the following state-ment in the Union of Oct. 7, 1852, viz:-Prapercrity Causanias.—We clip the following sangupal from the Washington Journal of Saturday. It is a crossing exposure of Scot's blartery during his electioneering campaign in Ohio: ney during his electioneering campaign in Ohio:

"Gas. Scort's Consistency.—It would be musing, were it not humiliating, to compare the "Idameying" tone now adopted by Gen. Scott towards foreigners, with his former course and bearing towards the same persons. The "rich brogue" of an Irishuam at Cleveland threw the General into cestacies. He actually "loved" it.

It reminded him of how Irishuam had fought side by side with him in Mexico, de. Now, to

"low the total insincerity of this, it is only necessary to turn to one of his lettors to recruiting

"You are instructed not to collist foreigners, for the bartalism of St. Patrick has taught us that foreigners cannot be trusted."

Legislative Nominations,—In Green County

mans and frielinen, whether naturalized or about to be f "That rich brogue!" Well!"

I beg you will deny it, in my name, as utterly and unqualifiedly false. I was one of General Scott's aid-de-eamps during the Mexican war, and have continued in that capacity to this time. The only instructions given by General Scott to recruiting officers were to report to certain officers in the United States, viz: General Brooke, at New Oblams, and the Adittant General of the Arny m cruling efficers were to refer the Brooke, at New Orleans, and the Adjutant General of the Army at Washington, D. C., dec., de. All other instructions to recruiting officers were issued from the office of the Adjutant General at Washington; and, on inquiry there, I am outhorized to date that no such instructions were issued from the Adjutant General's office, it could only have been done with the sanction of President Polk or Mr. Secretary of War, Marcy, under which Adjutant General Jones issued orders during the absence of Gen. Section Mexico.

The utter folly of so doing, in time of war especially, is sufficient to stamp this, purporting to be an extract from Gen. Scott's instructions, as a base forgery. I reiterate—the statement is affectly fulse.

Very respectfully, Your ob't serv't. SCHUYLER HAMILTON, Captain by Brevet, United States Army. The Stander against Hon. Thomas Corwin-The whole country has rung for three months with charges, originating with Loco Foco members of Congress, and copied into all the papers of that party, charging Mr. Corwin, the able Secetary of the Treasury, with having taken advantage of his position to make an enormous speculation out of the Gardiner claim, knowing that claim to be a fraudulent one. Mr. OLDE. a Loco Foco demagogue from Ohio, affecting to be harrorstruck at the idea, moved a Committee of Juvestigation into the matter, and a Committee was appointed. The plot was to adjourn it over to the next session, so as to allow the charges to be tung throughout the country during the canvass; but Mr. Corwin told the Committee that he was all ready, and demanded an immediate hearing Reluctantly, therefore, the investigation was directed to go on during the recess; Mr. Olds, however, starting off for Ohio at once, where he has been pouring out his calumnies upon the Secre-

of the Report:

In relation to the second branch of the inquiry—the connexion of the Hon. Thomas Corwin, the present Secretary of the Treasury, with the said Gardiner claim—the following facts appear from the testimony upon the publis directed by the resolution to be investigated:

In May 1849, the Inn. Thomas Corwin, then a member of the United States Senate, was employed as counsel in the Gardiner claim by General Waddy Thompson, the original counsel of Gardiner, upon an agreement that Mr. Corwin should have for his fee five per cent, on whatever sum should be awarded to Gardiner by the Commissioners. In February, 1850, Thomas Corwin, in company with Robert G. Corwin, Esq., purchased one-fourth part of the claim of Gardiner, and this fourth part of said claim was assigned on the 13th of that month to W. W. Corcoran, Esq., who loaved money to the Messrs. Corwin to purchase it, and held the claim for Messrs. Thomas and Robert G. Corwin, in equal shares, as collateral security for the payment of the load. The Messrs Corwin paid $22,500, and relinquished their fees on the one-fourth of the claim purchased by them, and paid a part of Edward Curtis' fees—what amount does not appear—as the consideration for the purchase.

The Hon. Thomas Corwin resigned his seat in the Senate, and accepted the appointment of Secretary of the Treasury, in the nounth of Jily, 1950. In the same month, and previous to his going into the Cabinet of, President Fillmore as Secretary of the Treasury, a sale of his fee interest in, and also of his half of the one-fourth part of the Gardiner claim, was signatized through the intervention of Governor John Young of New York, to George Law, Esq., of New York, From this time the said Thomas Corwin refused to act as counsel, or commit with the other counsel, who had been associated with him in relation to the same, and took and increation.

No testimony has been adduced before the committee province, or tending to prove, that the committee province, or tending to prove, that the committee proving, or tending to prove, that the Hon. Thomas Corwin had any knowledge that the claim of the said Gardiner was fraudulent, or that false testimony or forged papers had been, or were to be, procured to sustain the same.

The Report is signed by Preston King and V. E. Howard, Locos, and Chas. Chapman, Whig. We have no sort of idea that any their columnies will be found in the Loco Faco press, and therefore place the facts upon record, so that they may most the falsehood wherever it is the following account of a very destructive conflagration then raging in Cleveland:

An awint conflagration is now devouring vasquantities of property. This morning at a quartier before three, the alarm of fire was given at Cramer's wooden building, opposite the New England House. It rapidly spread to Superior Lane, consuming all the wooden buildings, to the corner of Davis' Frankin buildings. Then it spread over Union Lane, and swept down that street, consuming thath of Robert, Park's brick buildings. E. Clark's and Ociatt's brick block.

It then caught in the rear of the Mansion House and destroyed it, and then extended South, along water street to the Daily Forest City, or Frankin buildings, Cha. At. Hayes' whole sale water room, Sheppand's large their factory and cabinet ware house.

The fire extended north to St. Chair street.—

The fire extended north to St. Chair street.—
About 40 buildings are consumed. Hayes is insured $10,000; Parks about $4,000; Sheppard, amount unknown; M. Ourdy and Chery both insured to rome extent. More than two thirds of the houses were not insured a dollar. Forty funilies are rendered houseless, and tens of thousands of dollars are lost.

Our office came so near falling a prey to the flames that we moved everthing out of the building. A scarcity of water was severely felt. It ouse. It is by all odds the worst fire that ever happen ed in this city. While we write the firemen are yet battling with the devouring monster. The worst is passed.

The Nicarama Treaty.

The defeat of the Webster and Crampton treaty is a roatter of regret. The treaty or project of a treaty required the assent of the Central American States. It was sent out to them in July by special ngents, who were, both on the part of Great Britain and the United States, to promote the acceptance. It was accepted by some of these States, and rejected by the government of Nicaragna.—It appears that the ground of objection to the ready by Nicaragna, is that it gives to the Mosquito country some territory over which Nicaragna, claims sovereignty, though the Mosquito Hadiars have always disputed it, and therefore sought the protection of England. The treaty transferred the port of San Jian to Nicaragna, thus adjusting a difficulty between the United States and Great Britain. But as the treaty is rejected, that port is not thus transferred, and must remain subject to British protection, as against the claims of Nicaragna.

Mr. Marcolletta, the Nicaragna Minister, has been unremittingly engaged in opposition to the ratification of the treaty. He was no party to it. The whole subject, therefore, remains open.—But the United States and Great Britain must come to some understanding as to their concerns in Central America, and take precaution against the occurrence of any collision between British authorities there and American citizens. With Nicaragna we may also have a treaty. But we must leave the question of jurisdiction and limits between Nicaragna and the Mosquito King, and Queen Victoria, as the protector of the latter, to be adjusted by these high powers themselves.—Washington Cor. N. Y. Jour. Com.

When the small giant from Illinois made his speech at Washington, directly after the nominal give the democratic conditions of the country which were doubtful. He caused to be announced that he would speak to be believed, he has been suddenly called home, with an assurance that the party in his State need not only his services, but the services of every "lion" that can be enpured for the occasion.

The Altor (III.) Telegraph remarks.

The Alter (II.) Telegroph remarks: The Alton (Ill.) Telegroph remarks:

Judge Douglass' precipitate retreat homeward after having promised to canvass twenty-eight States of the Union, is full of deep significance.
When this great "little man," who scarcely three months ago pledged Illinois to be the "Banner State" of the Democracy, grows fearful of losing it entirely, what must be the prospects of Pierce and King in the other States? When Illinois, hitherto the stronghold of the Democracy, requires the presence of Douglass, Cass, Houston, and others, to save it, what hope have they for such States as they have long acknowledged to be doubtful?

The master immediately informed her that he should find it recessary to try another system of rappings, if the spirits were allowed to perform their taps in school, and as for impulsion he was also impelled not to write, but to expel her from school, if she persisted in writing when she should study.
